

My family has lived in Chadwell Street, Myddelton Square, since 2004.

In the highly unlikely event that Mr. Cooper were to succeed with his latest plan to turn a public amenity into a business, like everybody else in the area we would not be giving him a great deal of money for right of access to Myddelton Square Gardens.

It looks like his real purpose it is to wear down opposition by attrition. I trust that Islington Council will not submit.
